

AdHoc CutnServe Table fine grater

SKU: TP1RBGG33

Category: Home and kitchen

Crafted from high-quality black stainless steel and warm acacia wood, CutnServe offers the perfect balance between modern sophistication and natural charm. The razor-sharp grating blade delivers effortless, efficient results, whether you're grating hard cheese, chocolate, or nuts. The blade is securely fixed yet easily removable and dishwasher-safe, ensuring both convenience and hygiene. Meanwhile, the beautifully designed wooden container keeps your ingredients neatly collected and ready to serve. Designed by Robert Franzheld, CutnServe is more than just a kitchen tool — it's a refined statement piece that brings style and precision to every table.
