

AdHoc Pepe Chilli cutter

SKU: TP1RBMP20

Category: Home and kitchen

Add a touch of heat and design to your table with the AdHoc Pepe chilli cutter — an iconic tool that unlocks full flavour with every slice. With its distinctive shape and refined functionality, Pepe is made for those who appreciate both bold taste and standout design. Equipped with the original SchneidWerk® mechanism, Pepe delivers maximum aroma by cutting dried chillies precisely rather than crushing them. The stainless steel blade features photo-etched, razor-sharp teeth for effortless, consistent results every time. Crafted from a stylish combination of acrylic and stainless steel, Pepe is a true eye-catcher on any table. Designed by Gabriele Kaltenbach and awarded the prestigious German Design Award, it combines innovation, elegance, and performance in one compact form.
