

AdHoc RoccaVerde Chopping knife with chopping board

SKU: TP1RBGCO

Category: Home and kitchen

Turn chopping into a pleasure with the AdHoc RoccaVerde chopping knife and cutting board set - where design meets functionality. This ergonomic herb cutter with matching board is the perfect solution for effortlessly and precisely preparing herbs, spices, and nuts. The unique rocking motion of the knife, equipped with three ultra-sharp curved stainless steel blades, ensures fast, even, and gentle cutting. The ergonomically shaped handle fits perfectly in your hand, providing comfort and control, even during intensive use. The robust cutting board made from food-safe acacia wood not only offers ample cutting space but also features a specially designed resting area for the knife — stylish and practical. Designed by Robert Franzheld, the RoccaVerde set is a true eye-catcher in any kitchen. Perfect for design lovers and cooking enthusiasts who refuse to compromise on aesthetics or performance.
