

AdHoc Wave Universal chopping knife and pizza cutter

SKU: TP1RBKH50

Category: Home and kitchen

Make every cut a statement with the AdHoc Wave universal chopping knife and pizza cutter — where striking design meets everyday performance. Whether you're slicing through a crispy pizza or finely chopping fresh herbs and nuts, Wave delivers effortless precision with style. The single, high-quality stainless steel blade glides smoothly through ingredients, while the ergonomically curved acacia wood handle sits comfortably in your hand for optimal control. Its seamless design creates a harmonious flow between handle and blade — a true visual highlight in any kitchen. Complete with a stylish acacia wood storage stand, Wave is not only practical but also a design piece worth displaying. Winner of the prestigious #FORM Award and designed by Gabriele Kaltenbach, this is the perfect tool for those who appreciate both aesthetics and functionality.
