KENTO URBAN RCS recycled nylon Weekender

SKU: TP1P707.21

Category: Bags and travel

The KENTO Urban weekend bag is a lightweight and practical travel essential, designed for short trips and busy lifestyles. The main material is RCS-certified recycled nylon with a PU backing, combined with an RCS-certified recycled polyester 300T lining. This product contains 36% certified recycled material, offering a responsible choice without compromising on durability. The spacious main compartment provides ample room for clothing and travel essentials, while the front pocket and small back pocket keep smaller items organised and within easy reach. The long shoulder strap with removable pad ensures comfortable carrying, whether by hand or over the shoulder. A versatile and reliable weekend bag, ideal for short getaways, business trips, or everyday use.
