Meet Peakflow, the ultimate 1200ml tumbler designed for those who need a little extra. Its comfort-grip handle and slim base make it easy to carry and fit into most cup holders, keeping you hydrated on the go. Outside made from durable recycled stainless steel, Peakflow's double-walled, vacuum-insulated body keeps drinks at the perfect temperature. It features a spill-proof lid with a dual function for sipping or using the included recycled plastic straw. RCS-certified, with 29% recycled content, and BPA-free. Perfectly practical and lower impact, we recommend handwashing. Bulk packed.
