Stanley Everyday Suburban 473 ml recycled stainless steel insulated mug

SKU: TP2100978

Category: Drinkware

Enjoy your favourite hot or cold drinks with the 473 ml Everyday Suburban mug, designed for effortless daily use. The Tritan™ drink-through lid allows easy sipping while helping to prevent splashes, whether at home or on the move, while double-wall vacuum insulation keeps your beverage at the ideal temperature for longer. Crafted from 90% recycled stainless steel, it combines durability with a more sustainable choice, and its sleek design with a range of core colours makes it a stylish addition to your routine. Dishwasher safe for easy cleaning, it's ready to go again the next day.
