Stanley The All-Day Julienne 10-can recycled mini cooler bag

SKU: TP210094610

Category: Bags and travel

The All-Day Julienne mini cooler bag is made from recycled polyester, supporting a more sustainable approach to outdoor dining. With a vibrant design, contrast details and a patterned winged bear liner, it keeps everything organised for picnics, city hikes or weeknight outings. Holding up to 10 cans, it keeps contents chilled for up to 12 hours, while the unique hinge-top design allows easy unpacking and the sturdy zip, combined with reusable ice packs, keeps everything secure. Durable and practical, it's a stylish choice for everyday adventures.
