

The Dok phone stand

SKU: TP221027021

Category: Technology

An essential desk accessory, this phone stand is ideal for anybody working from home. This handy item will keep the phone close by at all times, ready for video calls, watching videos or simply catching up on social media. The white backboard is manufactured from recycled plastic, and the stand is designed to enable charging the device whilst it's on the stand. Supplied flatpacked in a gift box, with a low profile making it ideal for mailing. Made in the UK.
